Wednesday, MARCH 20, 2013
9am-1pm
Smith Warehouse
Garage C105 Bay 4
Lunch provided

DNA HUMAN RIGHTS and HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Join us for a workshop to:

- Discuss the potential role of DNA in human trafficking victim identification and the historic uses of DNA for human rights
- Explore the ethical, privacy, political and social implications of DNA collection of victims and family members

For more information visit http://genome.duke.edu/research/society/dna-human-trafficking/or email sara.katsanis@duke.edu