

GRADUATE RESEARCH AWARD: REGULATORY GOVERNANCE

Rethinking Regulation at the Kenan Institute for Ethics invites graduate and professional students to apply for small research grants to fund the costs of research related to the analysis of regulatory governance, either for a pilot study that might turn into an eventual dissertation topic, or for an already formulated dissertation project.

Applicants must be enrolled in a Duke graduate or professional program for the Spring 2016 and Fall 2016 semesters.

For full requirements and application instructions, visit:

dukeregulation.org

Deadline: November 23

 THE KENAN INSTITUTE FOR ETHICS